

Banque de France
Toulouse School of Economics

Prizes in Monetary Economics and Finance

May 17, 2021

16:00–16:05 Welcome address

Olivier Garnier (General Director International surveys and Statistics, Banque de France)

16:05–16:15 Junior Prizes Ceremony

Prize ceremony awarded by Sylvie Goulard (Deputy Governor, Banque de France) and Christian Gollier, (Director TSE)

16:15– 16:55 Lectures by Junior Prizes

16:15–16:35 Silvana Tenreyro (Professor in Economics, the London School of Economics, and external member of the Monetary Policy Committee, Bank of England)

“Dominant Currency and the Impact of Monetary Policy”

16:35–16:55 Jón Steinsson & Emi Nakamura (Chancellors’ Professors of Economics, University of California, Berkeley)

“Is the Phillips Curve Getting Flatter”

16:55–17:05 Senior Prize Ceremony

Prize ceremony awarded by François Villeroy de Galhau (Governor, Banque de France) and Jean Tirole (Honorary Chairman, TSE)

17:05–17:25 Lecture by Senior Prize

John Moore, (Professor, David Hume University Chair of Economics, University of Edinburgh)

“Credit Horizons”

17:25–18:00 Panel & General discussion

“Money and liquidity in times of crisis”

- Chair : Jean Tirole
- Panelists : John Moore, Silvana Tenreyro, Jón Steinsson & Emi Nakamura.

The event will be broadcasted online from Paris