

CALL FOR PAPERS

11th DIGITAL ECONOMICS CONFERENCE

previously known as THE ECONOMICS OF INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY, SOFTWARE AND THE INTERNET

Toulouse, January 11-12, 2018

THE OBJECTIVE OF THE CONFERENCE, organized by the Jean-Jacques Laffont Chair on the Digital Economy at the Toulouse School of Economics, is to discuss recent contributions to the understanding of the digital economy and its consequences for modern societies. Keeping the spirit of previous years, the conference will feature theoretical, econometric, experimental and policy oriented contributions. We welcome submissions from scholars working in law, political science, psychology and sociology as well as economics.

We especially encourage the submission of:

- state-of-the-art research papers on the economics of data markets, and
- papers from Doctoral students. The Conference will hold a PhD Student Session where doctoral students will present their research in front of the academic community and obtain feedback from senior researchers.

THE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE is composed of Alexandre de Cornière, Jacques Crémer, Paul Seabright and Lei Xu.

PROSPECTIVE PARTICIPANTS are invited to pre-register and/or submit papers by sending an email to softint@tse-fr.eu. Papers should be received by September 30, 2017 (abstracts will be considered, but papers are more likely to be accepted). A decision will be made by October 22, 2017.

REGISTRATION FEES:

250€ (includes lunches, conference dinner and coffee breaks). Waived for speakers and discussants, special rates for certain other attendees.

Travel on the base of economy class, accommodation and local expenses will be provided for speakers. For further information contact the conference secretary at softint@tse-fr.eu
