
OPENING LECTURE

September 7, 5pm

TSE Building – Auditorium 3

What can history teach us about the potential long-term consequences of COVID-19?

Victor Gay – TSE, IAST

In this lecture, Victor Gay discusses how past pandemics impacted individuals and societies over the long run, and which of their aspects can and cannot be a guide to understand the implications of the current crisis.